

Tips on Finding Your Skill Level and Education Programs

Your Skill Level	Typical Skills	Helpful Tips	Education Program Suggestion
New Golfer	Has not taken golf lessons May not have held a golf club May not have been on a golf course Not familiar with golf terminology or rules Seeking to learn basic golf skills to play in summer	Group lessons with on course play options are a great way to learn golf basics and meet women to play with	"EWGA Getting Started" Programs Ingrid Gallo at Begin Oaks Dee Forsberg at U of M Golf Institute
Beginner	May have taken a lesson in the past Has been on a golf course and/or driving range Does not play regularly Limited exposure to golf rules and etiquette Seeking to learn basic golf skills to play in summer	Group lessons with on course play options are a great way to learn golf basics and meet women to play with	"EWGA Getting Started" Programs Ingrid Gallo at Begin Oaks Dee Forsberg at U of M Golf Institute
Intermediate	One or more years playing experience Plays in a league and/or on the weekend May have taken some lessons or attended clinics Typically has a handicap of 30 or more Seeking to improve golf skills and lower handicap	Establish a handicap Help mentor our new golfers May consider private lessons to improve skills	"EWGA Breaking 100" & Clinic Programs Ingrid Gallo at Begin Oaks Dee Forsberg at U of M Golf Institute Michael Turnbull at Brookview Lesson Tee Lynn Anderson at Totally Driven Golf
Advanced	Typically several years playing experience Plays in leagues and on the weekend Typically has a handicap of 30 or less Will play competitively (league or EWGA champ) Seeking to lower handicap	May consider private lessons to improve skills Help mentor our new golfers	EWGA Specialty Clinics Ingrid Gallo at Begin Oaks Dee Forsberg at U of M Golf Institute Michael Turnbull at Brookview Lesson Tee Lynn Anderson at Totally Driven Golf

WEST/NW: Begin Oaks (BO)
 WEST: Brookview Lesson Tee (BL)
 CENTRAL: U of M Golf Institute(UM)
 EAST: Totally Driven Golf (TD)

Metro Area
Location Guide